Boat Registration and Boat/Motor Title Instructions

Authorized under LA R.S. 34:851 & 34:852

GENERAL INFORMATION

Registration is separate from titling. A title does not replace registration. A title provides ownership, and is required to secure ownership interest when a boat is financed. A copy of this signed and dated application can be used as a temporary registration for 60 days. If your documents are not received within 60 days, please notify the office at (225) 765-2898.

All registration/title requests require:

- Completed boat application
- Documentation demonstrating chain of ownership to the applicant
- Applicable documents below

Failure to supply all information including signature of owner will result in delayed processing or denial of your application.

NEWLY PURCHASED BOAT

Boats from Out of State

- Purchased from an individual, submit
  - Bill of sale,
  - Out-of-state title and/or registration, and
  - A Tax Payment Certification Form (R-1331) from LA Dept. of Revenue
- Dealership (titled/registered), submit
  - Dealership invoice or bill of sale,
  - Out-of-state title and/or registration,
  - Proof of ownership from previous titled/registered owner to the dealership, and
  - A Tax Payment Certification Form (R-1331) from LA Dept. of Revenue.

Purchased from Louisiana Dealership

- Original Manufacturer's Statement of Origin (MSO)
- Copy of invoice from dealership
- Proof of Louisiana state and local taxes on the invoice, OR a completed Tax Payment Certification Form (R-1331) from Louisiana Department of Revenue

TITLING OUTBOARD MOTORS (25 HP and above)

- Ownership documents listed above/below
- If previously titled or the title is held by a lien-holder, the title must be surrendered at the time of registration and a new title will be issued.

For motors not previously titled:

- Original Manufacturer's Statement of Origin
- Invoice
- Proof of Louisiana state and local taxes on the invoice, OR a completed Tax Payment Certification Form (R-1331) from Louisiana Department of Revenue
- If the original Manufacturer Statement of Origin is unavailable, a picture of the motor serial number must be submitted. If a boat and motor-25HP and above is financed, it must be titled.

TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP

- Bill of Sale including LA registration number, HIN, and signature(s) of seller(s) and purchaser(s)
- If previously titled or the title is held by a lien-holder, the title must be surrendered at the time of registration.
- If owner is deceased
  - Judgment of Possession awarding the boat to heir(s), OR
  - If no succession, Affidavit for Transfer of Decedent's Boat and a copy of the death certificate
- If boat is sold by the decedent heir(s), a bill of sale from the heir(s) is required

INSPECTIONS

First time boat registration in Louisiana without a HIN or an incorrect HIN must be inspected and titled.

- Inspection application (in addition to the Boat application)
- Original receipts for materials including Louisiana taxes must be provided at the time of inspection.
- Homemade boats: an inspection must be scheduled with your LDWF regional office after application is processed.

UNITED STATES COST GUARD (USCG) DOCUMENTED BOATS

- A completed Tax Payment Certification Form (R-1331) from Louisiana Department of Revenue
- Copy of USCG documentation in the applicant's name

NON-MOTORIZED HOUSEBOATS (1st time registrants only)

Must include Affidavit of Ownership Non-Motorized Houseboat

BOAT RENEWALS AND DUPLICATES (BOAT/MOTOR)

Renewals and Duplicates can be completed online at boat.wlf.la.gov. For Duplicate Certificates, Duplicate Certificate with Decals, Duplicate Titles, and Boat Renewals the current Louisiana registration number/motor serial # must be on the application.
